

JAMES M. MULLIGAN SELECTED AS BARRISTER'S BEST REAL ESTATE LAWYER BY LAW WEEK COLORADO

DENVER (September 12, 2012) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that James M. Mulligan, a partner in the firm's Denver office, was named the 2012 Barrister's Best Real Estate Lawyer in Law Week Colorado. The publication states that Mulligan "has a long-earned reputation as real-estate expert."

Each year, Law Week asks all lawyers and judges in Colorado to identify the best attorneys in the state. Once the survey is complete, Law Week selects one lawyer from each practice area as the Barrister's Best. Law Week is an official Colorado legal publication for attorneys, judges, and general counsel.

Mulligan has previously been recognized as Barrister's Best Real Estate Lawyer in 2009 and among the "Lawyers of the Decade" in 2011 from Law Week Colorado. His practice emphasizes most aspects of commercial and mixed-use real estate, including urban, resort and suburban developments, with an additional focus in the structured financing and corporate areas of practice. He represents private and institutional owners, developers, investors, lenders, owner associations, managers, brokers, contractors, and federal, state and local political subdivisions with regard to all forms of real estate ownership, land use and entitlements, development, financing, leasing, management and joint ventures of all kinds, public/private redevelopment projects (including historic designations, tax-increment financed projects, tax-credit structures, and taxable and tax-exempt bond issues), corporate campuses, transit-oriented developments, planned and common interest communities, public private infrastructure partnerships and acquisition/disposition transactions.
