SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY LINDSEY MARTÍNEZ HONORED WITH THE PUBLIC LAW CENTER'S ATTORNEY OF THE YEAR AWARD

ORANGE COUNTY (June 22, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Lindsey Martinez, attorney in the firm's Orange County office, was honored as Attorney of the Year at the Public Law Center's annual Volunteers for Justice Dinner on June 20, 2016 at the Hotel Irvine, California.

The Public Law Center, Orange County's pro bono law firm, is committed to providing access to justice for low-income and vulnerable residents. Their work includes counseling, individual representation, community education and strategic policy advocacy and impact litigation to challenge societal injustices. Snell & Wilmer has worked closely with the PLC for many years.

At Snell & Wilmer, Martínez concentrates her practice on business, franchise, intellectual property and construction litigation in state and federal court. She represents both large and small businesses in intellectual property and other litigation matters, including trademark, trade secret, unfair competition, patent, breach of contract, fraud, business dissolution and various business torts. She is also active in pro bono work assisting indigent non-immigrant victims of crime. Martínez received the Daily Journal and California Lawyer magazine's California Attorney of the year Award earlier this year for her role in the groundbreaking victory for transgender women seeking asylum and legal protection in the United States. She also received the California State Bar's President's Pro Bono Service Award in the recently admitted category in 2014 and the Wiley W. Manual Certificate for Pro Bono Legal Service from 2012-2015.

Omar and Lindsey Martínez

Martínez received her J.D. from The George Washington University Law School in 2010 and her B.A. from University of Connecticut.
