The Committee oversees the ABA Marketing Department to fulfill the ABA membership goal to increase membership so that the ABA is the national representative of the legal profession, supporting steady growth of dues and non-dues revenue so that the mission, goals and objectives of the Association can be met.

“I look forward to contributing to the ABA’s objective to provide benefits, programs and services that promote the professional growth of its members,” said Wittenberg. “In these difficult times, it is more important than ever to ensure confidence in our justice system and advance the rule of law.”

Wittenberg serves as co-chair of Snell & Wilmer’s Pharmaceuticals and Medical Devices Industry Group. His practice is concentrated on representing manufacturers and distributors of products across a vast array of industry sectors including: life sciences, medical technologies, pharmaceutical, consumer products, appliances, fall protection, food, cosmetics, dietary supplements, healthcare products, heavy equipment, oral and personal care products, power generation and timber. He regularly defends these companies in product liability litigation as well as counsels these businesses on agreements, risk avoidance/management strategies, labeling and marketing materials, instructions for use, as well as recalls and regulatory matters, including those involving the FDA and CPSC.

Additionally, Wittenberg is associate editor of the ABA Litigation Section’s “Litigation News” and is co-chair of the section’s Food and Supplements Sub-Committee.
