Since 2012, the Civic 50 has recognized the 50 most community minded companies in the nation each year as determined by an annual survey. This survey, presented by the Orange County Business Journal in partnership with OneOC, provides a local standard for superior corporate citizenship and showcases how companies can use their time, skills and other resources to improve the quality of life in the community where they do business.

Snell & Wilmer Orange County is involved in the community through pro bono work and local non-profit organizations. In 2017, the firm's Orange County attorneys worked nearly 1,500 pro-bono hours, considering it an important professional responsibility. Attorneys and staff also give their time and donations to local organizations such as Orange County United Way.
