PORTLAND (September 2, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce its Portland office has moved to a new downtown location. Previously located in Lake Oswego, the office has relocated to The Broadway Tower at 1455 SW Broadway, Suite 1750. The move reinforces the firm's commitment to serving Portland and the broader Pacific Northwest.

"Snell & Wilmer's move to downtown Portland demonstrates our unwavering commitment to the region and our clients," said Partner Victor J. Roehm. "We also look forward to playing an integral role in contributing to the vibrancy that has come to define Portland's business district and to proactively serving the broader community."

The firm has shown a dedication to the region since opening an Oregon office in January 2020. Since the start of 2021, Snell & Wilmer has added four lawyers to the Portland office—Counsels Lea K. Schneider and Julie K. Kelly and Associates Jordan E. Manley and Drew L. Eyman—and elected Clifford S. Davidson to the partnership.

"Our new office and continued growth in Portland aligns with Snell & Wilmer's strategic objectives in providing our Pacific Northwest clients with superior legal services," said Matthew P. Feeney, chair of Snell & Wilmer. "We are well positioned to meet and exceed our client's needs while also fostering a collaborative and innovative workplace for our people and providing service and leadership to the local area."

Snell & Wilmer's Portland-based attorneys advise clients on a range of legal issues, including appellate law, bankruptcy and restructuring, commercial and public finance, commercial litigation, constitutional litigation, corporate and securities, estate and wealth planning, First Amendment and defamation guidance and litigation, real estate, and state and local taxes. The firm offers clients a wealth of local experience backed by a solid, firmwide network of resources.

The Broadway Tower is a 430,000-square-foot property that offers 175,000 square feet of Class A office space on 11 floors and a 180-room hotel. The Broadway Tower Office Unit is a LEED Gold-certified, high-rise office tower with exclusive decks on the top three floors and views of Portland. It began construction in 2016 and opened in 2018. The office component features 17,000-square-foot floorplates with open designs and floor-to-ceiling window lines for multi- and single-tenant use. The building also features an underground parking garage with more than 240 parking spaces.
