SOUTHLAND INTEGRATED SERVICES RECOGNIZES SNELL & WILMER PARTNER TIFFANNY BROSNAN AS A DISTINGUISHED COMMUNITY CHAMPION

ORANGE COUNTY (October 30, 2019) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Partner Tiffany Brosnan has been honored by Southland Integrated Services as this year's Distinguished Community Champion.

Southland Integrated Services was founded in response to the urgent health needs of the large medically-undeserved population in the community. This non-profit organization strives to improve the well-being of Orange County's diverse population through outreach, education and community health services Orange County. Brosnan was presented with the Distinguished Community Champion award at the organization's 40th Anniversary Gala for her employment-related pro bono work and continued commitment to the organization.

Tiffany Brosnan

Brosnan's practice is concentrated in employment litigation and counseling. Her employment-related counseling includes advising employers regarding wage and hour problems, leaves of absence, layoff planning, termination and disciplinary matters. She also provides training to employers, including mandatory sexual harassment training, and she conducts independent workplace investigations. In litigation, Brosnan represents employers in individual matters and class actions including allegations of wrongful termination, whistle blower claims, discrimination, harassment, unfair competition, misappropriation of trade secrets and wage and hour violations.

In addition to the pro bono work she does with Southland Integrated Services, Brosnan currently serves as a board member for the Ensign Intermediate School Foundation and is the past president of the Constitutional Rights Foundation of Orange County and the past co-chair of the Career Forum Committee.

She has been named to Best Lawyers in America for her work in Labor and Employment law since 2013.
