TWO SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS SELECTED BY THE ABA BUSINESS BANKRUPTCY COMMITTEE FOR 20/20 PARTNERS RISING YOUNG LEADER AWARD

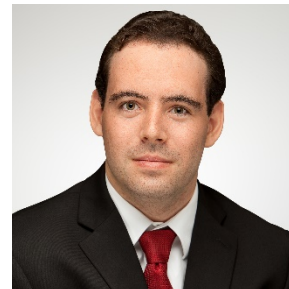

ORANGE COUNTY AND PHOENIX (September 15, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that attorneys James G. Florentine and Andrew Still have been selected as members of the inaugural class of the American Bar Association Business Bankruptcy Committee’s 20/20 Partners Rising Young Leader Award. Florentine and Still will be recognized, along with the other award winners, at the committee’s hybrid meeting scheduled for October 6-9 in Indianapolis, in conjunction with the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges.

“Both Andrew and James are promising and talented attorneys who are well-deserving of inclusion in the ABA Business Bankruptcy Committee’s 20/20 Partners Rising Young Leader Award. The bankruptcy practice group is proud to have two of the 20 attorneys represent Snell & Wilmer. This recognition reinforces the strength of the firm’s practice group and its commitment to leadership within the bankruptcy space,” said Christopher H. Bayley, Snell & Wilmer partner and bankruptcy group leader.

The American Bar Association’s Business Bankruptcy Committee provides cutting-edge educational programming and content in multiple formats and is involved in developing and reviewing proposed bankruptcy legislation and rules. The 20/20 Partners Rising Young Leader Award recognizes 20 young lawyers who show promise to be future leaders within the legal profession, the ABA and the Business Bankruptcy Committee. Nominees are evaluated on their emerging leadership, professional and/or social contributions, high-quality bankruptcy work, personal skills and integrity.

Florentine is an associate in the Phoenix office and focuses his practice in bankruptcy. Since starting at Snell & Wilmer in September 2017, Florentine has demonstrated strong leadership skills and has performed high-quality bankruptcy work. He has served as co-chair for Snell & Wilmer’s annual Valley of the Sun United Way Campaign since 2017, helping to raise significant funds to benefit the Valley of the Sun United Way. He has also mentored multiple summer associates and has volunteered with the Volunteer Lawyers Program and Arizona Public Service’s Wills for Heroes Clinic. He received his J.D. from the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law where he was the Senior Articles Editor for the Arizona Law Review, a member of the University of Arizona’s 2017 American College of Bankruptcy Law Meet team, and a two-year member of the Jessup International Law Moot Court team. Florentine graduated summa cum laude with his B.A. from Lesley University.

Still is an associate in the Orange County office and focuses his practice in bankruptcy and commercial litigation. He has a multi-faceted practice representing chapter 11 debtors-in-possession, as well as secured and unsecured creditors in all types of bankruptcy proceedings. Still also has significant experience representing defendants in bankruptcy avoidance actions and fraudulent transfer actions. He has been recognized as a 2021 and 2022 Best Lawyers in America® One to Watch in Bankruptcy & Creditor Debtor Rights/Insolvency & Reorganization Law. Still is the current Chair of the Commercial Law & Bankruptcy Section for the Orange County Bar Association, previously serving as Chair-Elect in 2020 and Secretary/Treasurer in 2019. He is also an active member of the Orange County Bankruptcy Forum, the American Bankruptcy Institute and the California Receiver’s Forum. Still received his J.D. from Chapman University and his B.A. from University of California, San Diego.
