

Snell & Wilmer

News Release

TWO SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS SELECTED TO JOIN ORANGE COUNTY BANKRUPTCY FORUM BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ORANGE COUNTY (October 11, 2021) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Marshall J. Hogan has been elected Secretary of the Executive Board and Andrew Still has been selected to join the Board of Directors for Orange County Bankruptcy Forum. Hogan has served on the Board of Directors since 2018 and Still will start his first term this year.

The Orange County Bankruptcy Forum is a non-profit organization that provides services and education for its members and the legal community of the greater Southern California area, with the goal of enhancing the community of practitioners and professionals. It sponsors educational programs and activities, and employs other appropriate vehicles to encourage and promote the creation, exchange and dissemination of information that improves bankruptcy practice and procedure in the State of California.

Hogan is a commercial litigation and business bankruptcy attorney who assists clients with a wide variety of business disputes and bankruptcy matters. He has represented clients in state and federal courts in matters involving contract claims, business tort claims, trade secret and intellectual property claims. In his insolvency practice, Hogan represents a broad array of clients, including financial institutions, debtors, bankruptcy trustees, buyers, landlords, and secured and unsecured creditors in bankruptcy cases, receiverships, and adversary proceedings. He has been recognized as a 2022 Best Lawyers in America® One to Watch in Bankruptcy & Creditor Debtor Rights/Insolvency & Reorganization Law. Hogan received his J.D. from Columbia Law School and his B.A. from University of Utah.

Marshall J. Hogan

Andrew Still

Still is an associate in the Orange County office and focuses his practice in bankruptcy and commercial litigation. He has a multi-faceted practice representing chapter 11 debtors-in-possession, as well as secured and unsecured creditors in all types of bankruptcy proceedings. Still also has significant experience representing defendants in bankruptcy avoidance actions and fraudulent transfer actions. He also focuses his practice in all facets of insolvency law, including creditors' rights and remedies, receiverships, assignments for the benefit of creditors, foreclosure and out of court workouts. He has been recognized as a 2021 and 2022 Best Lawyers in America® One to Watch in Bankruptcy & Creditor Debtor Rights/Insolvency & Reorganization Law. Still is the current Chair of the Commercial Law & Bankruptcy Section for the Orange County Bar Association, previously serving as Chair-Elect in 2020 and Secretary/Treasurer in 2019. Still received his J.D. from Chapman University and his B.A. from University of California, San Diego.

About Snell & Wilmer

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 450 attorneys practicing in 16 locations throughout the United States and in Mexico, including Los Angeles, Orange County and San Diego, California; Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Denver, Colorado; Washington, D.C.; Boise, Idaho; Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Albuquerque, New Mexico; Portland, Oregon; Dallas, Texas; Salt Lake City, Utah; Seattle, Washington; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit swlaw.com.

###