

Snell & Wilmer

Kennedy Williams

Associate | Washington, D.C.

Tel. 714.427.7510

kwilliams@swlaw.com

Main Bio

Kennedy Williams is a commercial litigation associate in the Washington, D.C. office.

Education

- Boston University, School of Law (J.D.)
 - Boston University International Law Journal, Note Development Editor
 - Faculty Award for Academic Accomplishment
- University of Utah (B.S., Human Development and Family Studies, minor in Sociology)
 - Dean's Honor List
 - Criminology Certificate
 - Arts and Advocacy Certificate

Professional Memberships & Activities

- American Bar Association

Representative Presentations & Publications

- "California Bars General Contractors From Collecting Compensation for Work Performed by Unlicensed Subcontractors," Co-Author, Snell & Wilmer Under Construction Newsletter (July 13, 2022)
- "Space Crime Continuum: Discussing Implications of the First Crime in Space," Note, Boston University International Law Journal, Vol. 39, Spring Issue (2021)

Previous Professional Experience

- Boston University Criminal Law Clinic, Student Attorney
- United States District Court for the District of Utah, Judicial Intern to the Honorable Dale A. Kimball
- Utah Attorney General's Office, Lead Legislative Intern
- Guardian Ad Litem Office, Matheson Court House, Intern

Bar Admissions

- California
- District of Columbia