Main Bio

Theresa Trenholm is an associate in the firm's labor and employment practice group. In her practice, she offers comprehensive advice relating to labor and employment matters and counsels clients on a variety of issues regarding state and federal regulations. Prior to receiving her law degree, Theresa worked in Human Resources for a Fortune 500 company, supporting thousands of employees in various capacities from commercial to manufacturing operations. This experience has given Theresa a unique opportunity to bring her extensive knowledge of human resources and business operations to her practice, making her a valuable resource for clients.
